

THREE CORD STRONG

PRINCIPLES FOR BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS

ENDURING RELATIONSHIPS

PART 2 OF 7

LifeGroups
Do Life Together

3 Cord Strong: Principals for Building Relationships

Title: Nurturing & Investing in Relationships

Session 2

Getting Started:

1. Having friends in our lives is important. Being a friend is even more important. How can we cultivate an environment conducive to mutual growth?

From The Video:

1. God has made us to _____ with one another and to have those _____ friendships.

2. Our friendships have be _____, _____, and _____ so you can sharpen your friends, and be sharpened yourself.

3. To nurture and invest in our friendships it is required that we give our _____, our _____, our _____, and our _____.

Questions:

Open:

Share a time where you were not a great friend, but in conversation with that person, things got better.

Digging Deeper:

- How can we hold ourselves accountable to the commitments we make in our relationships?
- What is keeping you from being truly honest with your friends?
- How can we proactively schedule intentional time for nurturing our relationships amidst our busy lives?
- How can we remember to pray for our relationships every day, asking God for help and guidance?
- What simple activities can we do to show our friends and family that we care about them?

Answer Key:

1. God has made us to connect with one another and to have those life giving friendships.
2. Our friendships have be Open, Honest, Caring and Full of Grace so you can sharpen your friends, and be sharpened yourself.
3. To nurture and invest in our friendships it is required that we give our Time, our Honesty, our Encouragement, and our Accountability.